Women's Federation at Annual Meeting Hears Reports and Prospects

Various Committees and Officers Submit Annual Reports of Accomplishments—Mrs. Luther Chosen President for This Year.

The May open meeting of the Kingston Federation of Women's Clubs, which was also the annual meeting was held on Saturday afternoon at the Kingston Y. M. C. A., Mrs. Harry B. Walker, the president, presiding.

The afternoon was devoted to the presenting of annual reports and the electing of officers, following the routine business of opening the session. The first standing committee to report of its year's activities was the Membership committee, reported by Miss Lucy Healy, chairman. Seventeen new individual members have been received into the Federation during the past year. There were 14 ex-members from the roll book, seven being for non-payment of dues; one by death. One individual moved from Kingston and one joined Sorosis as a club member. There are at present in the Federation 79 individual members, with 71 paid up. This year's report showed 22 more members than that of 1933.

Dr. Mary Gage-Day, chairman of the Public Health Committee, said that in the fall, there was some anxiety as to the outcome of the Christmas Seal Sale, but through the inspiration of Miss Murphy, the Tuberculosis visiting nurse, to hold Christmas Seal and Tuberculosis meetings in the county, the sale was a success. It will now be possible to continue Camp Happyland this summer and also to continue the Tuberculosis visiting nurse another year. Again Dr. Day brought the matter of the appalling death rate in maternity cases in the United States. She went into the subject, giving some reasons for such a condition and probable other ones, but summed up the situation as being a shame to the nation. In this community alone, Dr. Day stated that there was only one organization that was doing anything definite to better such conditions and that was the Junior League with its child welfare work. Dr. Day spoke very highly of the work at the clinic where Dr. Bibby and Dr. Krom are in charge, given prenatal instruction and care of little children which Dr. Day said she had greatly admired for its excellence. Under Miss Cassidy, the Junior League nurse, outside help is given and there is a wonderful "Little Mothers' Club," composed of old girls near the Junior League Clinic on Meadow street, to whom so much of the care of the young children is given. This alone is most valuable and it all goes a long way toward helping to reduce the maternity death rate and to make for healthier children and so healthier citizens.

Good Government.

In its local feature, the report of the Good Government Committee told of an increased interest in all features of city and county government on the part of the women of the federation, and through them on the part of some men. Improvements to the city have been accomplished and appreciation of whatever makes for the betterment of the community was expressed. Two outstanding pieces of good government were noted: a proclamation from the mayor relative to Good Friday observance and the remodeling of the old armory into a remarkably fine new Municipal Auditorium and that at a time when it could be done at the least cost to the city. Widening its scope the good government committee had kept the federation informed as to legislative action in either passing or killing bills, etc., as gathered from the "clip sheets," sent weekly from The Woman's Joint Legislative Forum at Albany.

Mrs. Fred P. Luther, chairman of the motion picture committee, did not give a full year's report as she was not in Kingston for several months. But she did give the following interesting report:

The past month has seen a sensational and national convention of the Motion Picture Owners of America, gathering both the administrators of independent theatres and those of the circuits. Several things happened that were quite significant and so closely allied and tied to the organization work that women all over the country have been doing. Along the walls of the convention hall—really in front, hung three large banners, reading:

If you would put as much thought and energy back of the family type of pictures as you do to the sophisticated type of picture, the box office appeal will be greater. Signed, "Committee on Public Relations."

Mr. Producer:

Exhibitors want you to make more pictures suitable for the entire family and that you will have a box office appeal. Signed,

"Committee on Public Relations."

Mr. Exhibitor:

Are you cooperating with the better films council in your town by having a family night at your theatre? Signed,

"Committee on Public Relations."

Such appeals are manifestly closely allied with better films councils over the land and reflect the voice with which such councils have been speaking at the box office. This point of view was evidenced in the speech after speech from the platform.

The second and most interesting development was a plan to work out direct cooperation and understanding between the makers of pictures

Bulgaria's Premier Says His Government Is Not Temporary

Possible Overthrow of Fascist-Minded Dictatorship Subject of Discussion in Sofia Today—New Leader Avows People Want What He Offers, a Strong, Stable Government—Makes No Specific Statement on the Soviet.

By WADE WERENER.

(Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press.)

Sofia, Bulgaria, May 21.—The possibility of a new government succeeding Bulgaria's Fascist-minded military dictatorship as soon as it has completed its immediate task of reorganizing the country on an authority basis was the subject of discussion and conjecture today.

Questioned by The Associated Press on this point, Kimon Georgiev, who became premier under the guns of the military Saturday, avoided a direct denial that his government is temporary.

"It is our intention," he said, "to give this country a strong, stable government."

The real purpose of the bloodless bulletless coup d'etat, he emphasized, was "not to change persons, but to change the system."

Georgiev expressed conviction that the Bulgarian army is "unanimously behind the new regime which had won general acclaim today with promises to balance the budget, re-establish credit, raise the cultural level of villages and make credit accessible to farmers.

Recognizing its patriotic duty at a critical moment, the army intervened to upset the outworn governmental system, "although its desire always has been to remain outside the struggle of political parties," the 52-year-old premier said.

Asked how soon recognition of Soviet Russia—casually mentioned in Saturday's manifesto—might be expected, the premier replied rather cryptically:

"Restoration of diplomatic relations is intimately bound up with establishment of a strong and stable authority, eliminating all elements of hazard from these relations."

Choate Says Backbone of Bootlegger May Snap With Year's Campaign

Tremendous Enforcement and Refusal are Only Straws to End Illegal Racket, Says Federal Alcohol Administrator—Problem a Difficult One.

By RICHARD RENDELL.

(Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press.)

Washington, May 21 (AP).—So deep are the roots of the bootlegger racket that Joseph H. Choate, Jr., federal alcohol control administrator, estimated today the campaign to eliminate it would require a year.

"The back of the trade might be broken in less than that time but I think it is unlikely," he said in an interview.

"The only thing," he said, "that could greatly reduce production of illegal liquor would be a tremendous wave of enforcement and a tremendous wave of refusal to buy bootleg. Proceedings have been started to increase enforcement and possibly the public will be moved not to buy so much bootleg."

Saying reports from a number of areas indicate that sales of illicit liquor are higher than those of the licensed trade, Choate added that prices are steadily dropping.

"The average is somewhere between 15 and 25 per cent lower than at first," he said. "There is a very marked decrease in the prices of the cheapest whiskies made by responsible fellows."

He indicated that restaurateurs have found it easy to slip adulterated beverages over on customers.

"I am told by several manufacturers that they have run into cases where they themselves could not tell whether the goods were genuine or not," he declared.

The Superior Market Opens at 622 Broadway

J. Lehr and John A. Nock Are The Proprietors—William Lehr Will Be The General Manager.

J. Lehr and John A. Nock today opened a new store at 622 Broadway, under the name of The Superior Market. They will carry a general line of groceries, fruits and vegetables.

The store has been completely renovated with an entire new set of fixtures and up-to-date refrigeration plant. Only the best grade of merchandise at the lowest possible prices will be the slogan of this store. William Lehr, who has been in business at this address for many years, will be the general manager. Mr. Nock is a former supervisor from the Tenth Ward in this city, and for many years was Commissioner of Elections of Ulster county.

Six Special "Cops" For Park Duty Here

Walter McDonough, Matthew White, Floyd Hicks, Orrin DeGraff, Arthur Brew and Martin Whitaker have been appointed special policemen on duty at the city parks and assumed their duties on Sunday.

They are under the jurisdiction of Chief of Police J. Allan Wood and will serve at Forsyth Park, Hasbrouck Park, Academy Park and Cornell Park.

At the recent meeting of the Board of Public Works it was decided that this year it would be better to have special officers on duty in the parks, rather than men in civilian clothes.

Killed When Car Crashed

Ithaca, N. Y., May 21 (AP).—Fred Cooper, 31, of Syracuse, was killed and Charles Durrett of the same city seriously injured as their car crashed nine miles from here today.

One Man Found Dead As Workmen Grope In Chicago Debris

Victim, 70, Man Who Discovered Fire—Plans for Rebuilding are Rushing Forward—Another Dead From Excitement.

Chicago, May 21 (AP).—The charred body of a man was found in the ruins of Chicago's stockyards today as crews of workmen groped through the debris of Saturday's $5,000,000 fire preparing the way for rebuilders.

Through acres of hot ashes, into heaps of bricks, skeletons of old landmarks and twisted steel girders the explorers dug, hunting valued documents and property that might have survived the holocaust, and hoping the loss of human life would not grow.

The one known victim was Isaac Means, 60 year old watchman who discovered the first flames in the cattle pens near the Forty-third street viaduct. The charred body was found less than two blocks from the point where Means shouted to other workers: "It's a fire." So quickly did the blaze spread on the wings of a brisk southwest wind, that Means was overtaken and burned to death before he could make his way out of the labyrinth of livestock corrals. One other death was attributed indirectly to the disaster: Walter Burnfield, 33, who dropped dead of excitement as he watched the flames.

Livestock poured into the stockyards today despite Saturday's disastrous fire which injured some 1,000 persons. Less than a dozen were seriously hurt.

The cause of the blaze, which leveled scores of private homes, several flat buildings, and more than a dozen major structures including the International Amphitheater, home of the International Stock Shows, was undetermined.

Some investigators, including O. T. Henkle, general manager of the stock yards, said they were convinced the conflagration had its origin in a carelessly tossed cigarette.

Henkle said he did not believe there was any truth to reports that the fire was the outgrowth of labor troubles.

Sentenced To Sing Sing.

New York, May 21 (AP).—Hugo J. Willigerod, 41, of Englewood, N. J., was sentenced to twenty-five to thirty years in Sing Sing prison by Judge John J. Frech in general sessions court today.

Willigerod pleaded guilty to robbery in the third degree in connection with the theft of $20,000 worth of jewelry from Marguerite Ardell in her home at 419 East 57th street, on April 5, 1931.

F. D. R. Honors Lafayette

Washington, May 21 (AP).—President Roosevelt placed a sword associated with the memory of Lafayette beneath a portrait of Washington in the White House today. This gesture of a nation's gratitude followed a stirring observance yesterday of the 100th anniversary of the French marquis who fought for American liberty.

Airmail Advertising Boom

Washington, May 21 (AP).—The Postoffice Department is going to start an intensive advertising campaign to boom use of the airmail. Harlan Branch, second assistant postmaster general, said today the drive would start May 24 with posters, newspaper publicity and oratory. The cost is to be limited to "less than $100,000."

Bees Were Head Hit

Ithaca, N. Y., May 21 (AP).—Fully half of the bees in New York state were killed by the last unusual winter, and half of the remaining colonies are in danger of starvation unless man does something about it.

Prof. George Rex of the New York State College of Agriculture reported today.

$5,700 Donated to Aid Y.W.C.A. Toward Its Expenses This Year

Final Supper Shows Goal Nearly Reached by Y. W. Drive Workers—Howard Lewis Leads Work and Program of Association.

The final get-together supper of the Kingston Y. W. C. A. drive was held at the Y. W. auditorium on Saturday evening, with most of the workers present and several distinguished guests. Mrs. G. Slater, Mrs. Warren Smith, Miss Winona Watrous and Mrs. E. N. Secore. There was considerable tension in the atmosphere as the workers began to gather, as there always is on the last night of these campaigns.

The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Dr. Frank B. Seeley. During the serving of the excellent supper, there was spirited singing, led by Miss Bell and Miss Rand at the piano.

Mrs. Rice called attention to the honor bestowed upon the gathering by the presence of directors of the Y. W. C. A., bankers, lawyers, a physician and friends. It was gratifying that a busy man and friend of the Y. W. C. A. had been thinking of the campaign workers way out in Detroit and had hurried home to be with them on this last night of their drive to speak to them.

Howard A. Lewis of "Detroit, Kingston and the world," as introduced by Mrs. Rice, was given a most cordial welcome.

Mr. Lewis, recalling his attendance upon a similar occasion a year ago, said that he fully enjoyed such meetings. It was part of his business to train young people to sell ideas, merchandise, etc., and he felt quite at home in looking after publicity, committees, groups of workers or sales people. No organization can put over such a campaign as the one just closing, according to Mr. Lewis, without their effort and the imprint upon the community that would go way beyond the campaign itself. In their contact with the people upon whom they had called the workers had been selling their Y. W. C. A. as a splendid and valuable organization and had dramatized it most effectively. The speaker thought that what they had and were accomplishing was wonderful and said it from the bottom of his heart.

While Mr. Lewis had been abroad visiting other countries this past year he had found conditions that sent him home thankful for his country, Ulster county and Kingston.

There is in the world today a terrific case of nationalism and each country has a philosophy of its own regarding thought, politics, economics, etc. In America we have had the philosophy of the pioneer, going from east to west over a period of 40 to 50 years. We have had a commercial America. Now as the result of the depression we must develop a new philosophy of culture and how to make use of our leisure.

Looking about him, and recalling what he knew of the Y. W. C. A., Mr. Lewis was proud of the beautiful, natural way in which they were handling that problem of added leisure. If the machinery of leisure is to move successfully so that it will make for enjoyment and happiness, it must not operate alone for the individual but for groups of individuals.

Said the speaker, "If America is going to find her place internationally, she must be able to meet intelligently the philosophies of Russia, Germany, Japan, yes, England and France. Emotionally, spiritual as well as physically we must come together."

Mr. Lewis told the women who were working for the campaign that they seemed to find a way to come together, that he knew of none better organized to help meet these new problems of philosophy, of leisure time, etc. Whether they raised the full amount of money did not matter so much as the fact that they were reestablishing an organization whose dividends in culture and character would be felt not only in Kingston and Ulster county but all over America.

Before the reporting of the amounts received during the day and evening, Mrs. G. F. Rice, president of the Board of Directors and head of the campaign, thanked all, individually and collectively who had in any way contributed to making the campaign the success that it had been.

While the figures shown below were those reported at the meeting, The Freeman reporter was called before the Y. W. closed to add to that

Glasco Man Killed Self Sunday Night With Carbolic Acid

Joseph Tiano, 30, Took Contents of 3-Ounce Bottle—Body Found by J. H. Simmons—Former Gave Verdict—Brooded Over Loss of Wife, Report Says.

Joseph Tiano, about 30 years old, of Glasco, committed suicide some time Sunday night by drinking the contents of a 3-ounce bottle of carbolic acid. The body was found this morning shortly before 8 o'clock by J. H. Simmons, who investigated the case of the Ford car being parked along the road near his home.

On March 29 Mr. Tiano lost his wife and it is presumed that brooding over her death caused him to take his life.

Parked Car on Road.

Tiano called Saturday afternoon at his brother John's place and was shaved, and Sunday night he was last seen in Glasco about 11 o'clock by Peter Nillo. Shortly after that he evidently took his Ford coupe and drove toward Saugerties, for about 1 o'clock this morning Miss Simmons saw the car parked in front of her place, a short distance north of Blackstone Inn on the Saugerties road near Saugerties. The car parked partly on the highway attracted her attention and an investigation was made. It was seen that a man apparently lay asleep on the rear seat of the car and believing the man was taking a nap, he was not disturbed. This morning the car was still parked there when J. H. Simmons arose and he went to investigate. The man was apparently asleep and he shook Tiano to rouse him and found him dead.

Police notified

The Saugerties police were notified and Ed Dillon responded. Dr. Lester Sinking of Saugerties was called and made an investigation. Beyond medical aid, word was sent to Coroner W. N. Conner, who with his assistant, Arthur Keator, responded and an investigation was made.

Coroner Conner was summoned about 8 o'clock this morning. When discovered the Ford coupe was parked off the roadway along the heavily traveled Saugerties highway. The rear wheels were about six inches off the pavement and the car was about two feet from the concrete. The car was parked directly in front of the J. Rauberz mail box.

Death Bottle Found

Coroner Conner's investigation disclosed that Tiano had taken carbolic acid and later a three-ounce bottle, empty, was found by the Shell gas station about a thousand feet south of where the car was parked. The bottle was seen by Lester Reynolds of 54 St. James street as he passed the gas station and he picked it up and turned it over to Coroner Conner. It has been purchased at a Saugerties drug store apparently Saturday.

When discovered Tiano lay on the rear seat of his car with his coat reared. At the request of the family the body was turned over to Michael Galletta of Glasco. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mr. Tiano is survived by his mother, two brothers and two sisters.

WALTER C. VAN BUREN TO REPRESENT FRATERNITY

Buffalo, May 21.—Beta Chapter of Psi Phi fraternity, located at Buffalo State Teachers College, will be represented at the annual convocation to be held at Oswego, May 25 and 26, by two delegates, Ignatius M. Calleri of Buffalo, grand vice president, and Walter C. Van Buren of Kingston, grand treasurer, will be the official delegates.

Other members of State Teachers College who will attend are: Edward Hall, Walter Heffley, and Herbert Stumpf, all of Buffalo, and Oliver Kendall of Oswego. Besides the business meeting, the convocation will provide a reunion between Mr. Van Buren and Bentley Jensen, former classmates at Kingston High School. Mr. Jensen is a sophomore at Oswego Normal School, and a member of Gamma Chapter of Psi Phi fraternity.

Doorman Becomes Saint

Vatican City, May 21 (AP).—Pope Plus XI seized upon the occasion of the canonization of a German doorman yesterday to assail "paganism" in Germany. He was heard by 5,000 German pilgrims in an assembly hall including 12 cardinals and a number of German bishops gathered in St. Peter's for the ceremony, which elevated to sainthood Conrad of Parham, whose earthly name was Johann Birndorfer. For 46 years he was doorman at a German Capuchin monastery.

Housing Bill Praised In Capital Today By John H. Fahey

Chairman of Home Owners Loan Corp. Says Regional Offices are Swamped With Modernization Demands—Says U. S. Behind Europe for "Small Man."

Washington, May 21 (AP).—Praising approval of the Administration Housing bill, John H. Fahey, chairman of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, told the Senate banking committee today it was "imperative" to encourage private capital to take over the burden of carrying home mortgages.

Fahey testified Congress should act at once because otherwise next year would find "the wave of demands" still flooding the Home Owners' Organization "and no way to stop it."

Outlining the work of the corporation, Fahey said the home mortgage situation was "easily the most serious debt problem facing the country."

The administration housing bill, on which the committee is now conducting hearings, is designed to encourage private lending agencies to take up the mortgage burden by providing insurance for such financing.

Fahey advocated the bill's provision for financing home repairs and improvements, saying the Home Owners' Loan Office had received thousands of requests for such loans that they could not handle.

Regional offices of the home owners loan have been "overwhelmed" by demands for loans to modernize homes, Fahey said.

"This is conclusive evidence," he added, "that there are a lot of people who would be glad to make use of the money if it is made available to them."

Despite America's reputation for fine homes, he said, "so far as taking care of low income groups are concerned this country is far behind the more progressive countries in Europe."

Fahey contended the seriousness of the home mortgage problem had not been recognized generally.

"We on the board," he said, "are of the opinion we cannot secure stability in the financial situation until we advance further in the solution of the mortgage debt problem."

He compared the problem with "creeping paralysis" because of the large number of mortgages maturing in three and five year periods.

When the Home Owners Loan Corporation was organized last June, he said, $5,000,000,000 of home mortgages faced foreclosure.

In that month, he added, foreclosures hit the hit for all time—26,000. Since then, he said, the number has been reduced about 25 per cent.

Lehman Signs Bill For Branch Banking

Albany, N. Y., May 21 (AP).—Branch banking in rural up-state New York communities where banking facilities are non-existent was provided today with the signing by Governor Lehman of the Stephens bill.

Mr. Lehman, himself a banker of international reputation before he entered politics, said in affixing his signature Saturday night:

"This state should in no way insure the sound unit banks in this state, nor will the bill reduce the amount of local credit available to residents of small communities."

The measure, sponsored by Assemblyman D. Mallory Stephens of Putnam county, was the subject of a bitter controversy before the Assembly committee. In both houses and a hearing before Lehman.

Bridge Lights Are To Be Installed

The Board of Public Works has received a communication from D. V. Z. Bogert, county assistant engineer of the state department of public works, that equipment needed for the new lighting system had been received and the work of installing the system on the Rondout Creek Bridge was expected to be started today. Mr. Bogert stated in his letter that it was expected to have the installation of the new system completed by Memorial Day. For a number of months the Rondout Creek Bridge has been shrouded at night, as the lighting system had been damaged.

Prof. J. T. Simpson Dies

Edinburgh, May 21 (AP).—Prof. James Tusk Simpson, eminent educator, author and world traveler, died at his home here today. He was 60 years old.

Washington, May 21 (AP).—President Roosevelt will permit the Darrow Board investigating NRA monopolies to go out of existence upon completion of its present work, expected in a few days.

The report of the board, excoriating the NRA and advocating government ownership and control of industry, was made public last night.

The president offered no comment today on the clash between the monopoly board headed by Clarence Darrow and the National Recovery Administration directed by Hugh S. Johnson.

The Darrow group will conclude its work very quickly, thus disposing of the demand of Johnson for the resignation of Darrow.

The board, which had been asked by President Roosevelt to review the practices of the National Recovery Administration, stabbed at the heart of NRA's principles of industrial codes by saying:

"All competition is savage, wolfish and relentless, and can be nothing else. One may as well dream of making war lady-like as of making competition fair."

A socialistic alternative of government ownership was suggested in a supplementary report signed by Darrow, 77-year-old lawyer, and one other board member—William O. Thompson of Chicago, former law partner of Darrow. It said:

"The hope of the American people" "lies in the planned use of America's resources following socialization."

One member of the board dissented from the Darrow findings in a minority report. This member, John F. Sinclair, now resigned, labelled its findings as "at times misleading and unreliable."

The NRA itself, in a reply to the review board which was made public simultaneously with the report, defended itself in language as plain as that of the Darrow document. The NRA administrator, Hugh S. Johnson, said:

"A more superficial, intemperate and inaccurate document than the report, I have never seen. In my judgment this board has missed a great opportunity for a real public service. As it is now acting it is of no service to anybody—it is a political sounding board."

NRA took no public issue with Sinclair's minority report, and Johnson gave out today correspondence between himself and Senator Borah of Idaho, and Nye of North Dakota, which showed the administration in partial agreement with the minority member's view.

The reactions of the two independent senators to the Darrow views are awaited almost as keenly as that of the White House. Nye personally nominated the board's personnel after refusing to head the agency.

Despite the general finding for socialism, the board in one connection held restoration of the anti-trust laws, amended and invigorated, to be a crying need.

The major Darrow report consisted of a brief synopsis and general statement of opinion ending in an assertion that NRA can't do the job assigned to it.

It contained also separate reports on the codes for steel, coal mining, motion pictures, electrical manufacturing, drying and cleaning, rubber footwear, fur manufacture and coal retorting. It denounced all but one as oppressive and produced a radical change in most. The cleaning code was passed without recommendation on the feeling that "no appreciable results could be obtained by amending the code."

Further, the board recommended the ouster of Division Administrator Sol A. Rosenblatt from supervision of the movie code.

It urged the dismissal for alleged malfeasance and misfeasance in office of two divisional coal code authorities.

NRA's answer paralleled the Darrow report in size and structure. It asserted the board was guilty of "abusing shamefully the confidence reposed in its membership."

NEWSPAPER EDITORS MEET AT ROCHESTER

Rochester, N. Y., May 21 (AP).—Newspaper editors from all sections of the state gathered here today for the annual meeting of the New York State Society of Newspaper Editors.

At the same time editors of the Gannett group of 17 newspapers met for executive discussion.

Carl W. Ackerman, dean of the Columbia University School of Journalism, arrived here today. He was programmed to speak on "Nationalism: A Menace to Local Government."

Murder Trial Postponed

Mt. Holly, N. J., May 21 (AP).—Trial of three men charged with participation in the slaying of Broadway Brown, young printing company executive, has been postponed until further notice.

May 23, Edward Adams, Adam Szewczak and Solomon Lutz were scheduled to go on trial today. Brown was shot at his home in January, 1932.

4-H Poultry Camp To Be Held in June

Annual Week-end Project for first 3 days—Many interesting leaders to instruct those who attend.

The annual week-end 4-H project camp for poultry club members will be held on June 1, 2, 3, at the Y. M. C. A. camp (Camp Poultrymaker), at Galesville.

Mrs. L. E. Dawley, poultry specialist from Cornell University, will conduct classes in candling eggs and feeding poultry. Albert Kurdt, State Bureau Agent, will discuss "Control of Poultry Diseases." H. S. Pringle, of Cornell University, agricultural engineering department, will teach tool sharpening and rope work.

Swimming, ball games and camp fire programs with stunts are of course part of the camp program. A question box will be provided for questions which the boys may have on social customs. A period will be devoted to the discussions of these questions on the last day of camp.

Another activity of the camp program is the cooking of hunters' stew over an outdoor fire on Saturday evening. Each tribe tries to prove that its members are the best cooks. Dr. John B. Krom will give the physical examinations.

The poultry camp gives club members an excellent opportunity to become acquainted with the specialists from Cornell University, to add to their information about poultry and to associate with members of other clubs.

League Meeting

Any interested in the Uptown Twilight Baseball League is invited to attend a meeting to be held at 7:30 this evening at the Herzog store on Wall street.

What SHE TOLD WORN-OUT HUSBAND

SHE could have reproached him for his fits of temper—his "all in" complaints. But wisely she saw in his frequent colds, his "lagged out" condition, the very trouble she herself had when she was young. She knew the cause—acid indigestion. She knew the remedy—TUMS. She knew the relief—quick relief for acid indigestion, heartburn, only 10c.

4-H Club Egg Contestants High

Cluster County 4-H Club members are standing well in the New York State 4-H Egg Laying Contest.

At the end of the 32nd week Joseph O'Brien's pen of White Leghorns sponsored by William Mehrmann, Jr. of Saugerties is in second place with a total of 740 eggs and 744.90 points. Westler Schuyler of Onondaga county is in first place with 722 eggs laid and 736.65 points.

There are 18 pens in the contest. Joseph O'Brien owns three of the 10 high individual hens to date. They are in third, sixth and ninth places. George Schneider of St. Remy whose pen is sponsored by I. J. Kauder of New Paltz is standing in fourth place to date. George has one hen on the list of the 10 highest.

Franklin Kelder of Accord, whose pen is sponsored by Claude Kieffer of Flatbush, has one hen in fourth place among the 10 high individual hens. The three Cluster county contestants own five of the 10 highest standing birds.

Franklin's pen stood in 12th place according to the April contest report. Entries for the 1934-35 Egg Laying Contest at Horseheads are due on June 1. Several Cluster county members plan to enter pens.

Completing Plans To Welcome Warship

The committee in charge of the plans for welcoming the officers and crew of the U. S. Destroyer Talbot are rapidly completing plans to make the stay of the warship and its crew both interesting and entertaining. The committee on behalf of the warship states that it will be possible to berth the Talbot in the Rondout creek at the foot of Hasbrouck avenue, provided a flat scow can be obtained to be moored first to the dock and then the Talbot berthed against the scow.

The Talbot arrives here on Sunday, June 24, at an hour not determined and remains here until June 26, and the public will be given an opportunity to inspect the vessel.

The tentative schedule for the entertainment of the sailors provides that Monday evening a dance will be held in the Municipal Auditorium which is free to the sailors and the public will be charged a nominal fee. Tuesday evening the American Legion plans boxing bouts to which the sailors will be admitted free. During the stay of the Talbot here the local theatres have generously offered to admit any sailor and lady friend to any performance free of charge.

Wednesday afternoon the crew will be taken for an auto spin around the Ashokan reservoir and on the return will be entertained at a buffet dinner. The officers of the ship will be entertained while here at a round of dinners and extended the privileges of the local golf courses. It is also expected that a ladies' committee will be appointed to work in conjunction with the welcoming committee.

CITY GETS REDUCTION ON INSURANCE RATES HERE

City Clerk E. J. Dempsey today received a communication from the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters that it had just issued credits of 10 per cent for public liability and 13 per cent for property damage on all automobiles operated by the city government. This rate is based on experience.

High School Boy In Naval Academy

Mayor C. J. Heitselman today received a communication from Congressman Philip A. Goodwin that Edward Michael Luby, of R. F. D. 4, Kingston, who has been endorsed by the mayor as a candidate for the Naval Academy at Annapolis, had successfully passed the entrance examination and would have to report at the Naval Academy about the middle of June for a physical examination. If he successfully passes the physical examination he will then enter the academy. Mr. Luby is a graduate of Kingston High School, being a member of the graduating class of last June.

amount of verse fell off slightly, but continued to maintain a level above 20 per cent higher than the pre-depression volume. This particular magazine uses only about 15 poems a year, so that the estimated 30 poems will leave a large surplus.

Why should the depression so increase the poetry output? Perhaps it is that it has on a given day in the past the number of verses which have tried to sell their wares in good times many individuals write poetry for personal pleasure. They put their verses away in desk drawers or send them to friends. In hard times the poems are taken out polished up and sent to publishers in the hope they may be printed and paid for. That may not be the whole explanation. There may really be more poem-writing going on, a development of the low leisure.

FREEDOM OF THOUGHT

The anniversary of the burning of the books in Germany by order of the Nazis was given special observance in Paris. The French celebration centered around the opening of "The German Library of Burned Books." It is a collection of more than 20,000 books and pamphlets, duplicates of the ones outlawed and destroyed in Germany. In addition to the books there are documents concerning the early days of the German Republic and copies of newspapers and pamphlets clandestinely printed and circulated in Germany attacking Hitlerism.

The library is intended for research by students, writers, historians and sociologists. It stands for the fact that, although the Nazis can burn books, they cannot destroy freedom of thought or the great teachings of the past.

Perhaps some day when the world is a happier place than it is now, some German government will thank the French for establishing that library.

That Body of Yours

ANGINA OR BREAST PANG.

An attack consists in the sudden onset of agonizing pain in the region of the heart or under the breast bone, accompanied by a feeling of constriction (tightness) and in severe cases with a sense of impending death. The pain extends to the back, the shoulders and the arms, particularly the left. The patient is pale, haggard, motionless, and often bathed with cold perspiration.

I am giving the usual definition of what is known as angina pectoris or breast pang. I'm mentioning it again as it is a very common ailment in middle aged or elderly individuals.

Various causes are given—alcohol, infections, rheumatism, kidney disease, influenza and others. As exciting causes may be named: Physical exertion, mental strain, profound emotion, and digestive disturbances. Something interferes with the flow of blood to the small vessels supplying the muscular walls of the heart with blood. As these muscular walls do not get enough blood to nourish them properly the heart cannot do its work of pumping blood to the lungs and to all parts of the body. Hence the tight, vice-like feeling.

However recent researches seem to show that these little blood vessels may be partially closed, not because the walls are becoming non-elastic, but because a "spasm" temporarily closes or partly closes these vessels.

This could account for the anginal attacks from emotional and digestive disturbances.

Recently Drs. M. A. Rothschild and M. Kissin in the American Heart Journal tell of causing a lessening of the amount of oxygen in the blood by having a number of individuals rebreathe air, some of whom had true angina pectoris, and some were normal healthy individuals.

It was found that rebreathed (lacking in oxygen) air caused symptoms exactly like true angina pectoris.

The thought then is that with a pain in the region of the heart or under the breast bone, simply gas pressure from indigestion is the commonest cause; and even when it is not indigestion and resembles true angina pectoris as described above, the pain may be due to breathing impure air—air with insufficient oxygen.

MURDER AT MOCKING HOUSE

BY WALTER C. BROWN

don't see why it would be left lying around all that time."

"But this gun was too big to be carried around easily. It really needed a holster. I think you'd better take Dufresne on the question."

"Not so fast. Let me think. If Dufresne did it and we are this with it, he'd certainly deny there ever was such a gun. If Andrews did it, he'd be too. But if he didn't do it and doesn't know it's gone—you say here, Jack, and look through these two rooms for that gun."

Chapter 21 MISSING REVOLVER

IT WAS a quiet roll of old stuff carpet. There was a scorched hole through the tough fabric and a further search showed a scar on the whitewashed boards where the spent bullet had hit.

"We're on the right road now," Harper exclaimed excitedly. "If we could only find that steel-jacket bullet, we'd have our proof complete."

"I'm afraid the killer would hold on to that," was Lafferty's surmise. "There's a natural urge to get rid of that sort of evidence," Harper countered. "And I'm counting on that."

They swung their flashlight about at random. "What's in that little cubby hole over there?"

Lafferty poked his head down. "Logs for the fireplace," he announced.

They moved those from one side of the narrow bin to the other but found nothing hidden beneath them. Harper flashed his light around the sides of the bin and the beam came to rest on a rough board barrier set flush into the wall.

The detective unfastened the rusty books and pulled it free, after a struggle. A dark space filled with rubble was revealed, greeting them with a damp, musty odor.

"That must be the space under the front steps," said Harper. Lafferty suddenly raised his hand. "Listen!" he whispered. "There's some one on the stairs. I heard a board creak!"

He tiptoed silently in that direction, while Harper snapped off the light and listened, waiting. In a little while Lafferty returned, disgruntled. "There wasn't a soul in sight," he growled, "but I'm sure somebody was listening!"

"I'm going to look in that hole," Harper declared. "Give me a boost up to the ledge." With his assistant's aid he scrambled on to the shoulder-high ledge. Thrusting the torch ahead, he crawled forward on his knees. Lafferty heard a grunt of disgust as he brushed aside a black thing that crawled out from under a dislodged lump of mortar.

There was a cry, a scramble backwards, and Harper slid down to the cellar floor in a shower of small stones and dirt. His clothes were soiled with lime and the soft, mossy dirt, and his hands were brushing at the thick cobwebs caught around his head and shoulders, but in his stained fingers he held a lump of metal.

"Carlin was right!" he exclaimed. "It was a discharged .45 caliber steel-jacket bullet!"

"BUT, Steve, I tell you I saw it—right there, buried under those handkerchiefs!"

Lafferty pointed to the open drawer of the highboy in Pierre Dufresne's dressing-room. There was palpably nothing there now but the neatly stacked handkerchiefs.

"I couldn't be mistaken about anything as important as that. It was not an automatic, but a heavy caliber revolver. Andrews was looking for Dufresne's extra pair of glasses and they were in the drawer on the other side. The gun was not in a holster. I'd bet a month's pay the bullets would be .45's."

"I don't get this at all," Harper mused. "We went off by ourselves and made an important discovery that has to do with the gun used for this crime. No one knew anything about our suspicions, yet when we return to this room less than an hour later the revolver has been spirited away. That's more than a coincidence!"

Harper looked through the other drawers in the highboy. The contents were in meticulous order and it was apparent at a glance that nothing as bulky as the revolver Lafferty had described could be hidden there now.

To be doubly sure that Lafferty and he had overlooked nothing, Harper went through the drawers once more, and gave the pleasant room a busy general search before either spoke again. There was nothing.

"Don't forget," Lafferty advised drily, "that there was a noise on the stairs while we were poking around the cellar. Some one in this house is trying to keep an eye on us. I think it's Andrews. That fellow can move around with less noise than a snake."

"If that was the revolver we're looking for," Harper went on, "I upon request to the Station.

Among the apples, such popular varieties as Baldwin, Rhode Island Greening, Tompkins King, and Gravenstein have proved to be poor pollinators, and when they are present in the orchard it is recommended to set at least three varieties. In such cases, two rows of each kind might be set, or every third tree in every third row might be set with the pollinator. Among the good pollinators might be mentioned McIntosh, Rome, Cortland, and for late bloomers, Northern Spy.

Most pears will not set fruit to their own pollen. It is said, and in tests made at Geneva it was found that Seckel and Bartlett would not pollinate each other, although serving as excellent pollinators for other pears. Bourre Bosc or Angouleme are recommended as pollinators for Bartlett and Seckel. Similar information is given in the circular on cherries, plums, plums, and nectarines.

HURLEY

Hurley, May 21—On Friday evening, May 25, the Rondout Valley Sunday School Association will meet in Bloomington. At the last meeting held at Hurley in February, Hurley won the banner and it is hoped that there will be a large representation this time so as to bring the banner again to Hurley.

The Rev. Mr. Caroline of Stone Ridge, a former missionary to Arabia, will occupy the pulpit on next Sunday morning.

George Kent has opened an ice cream parlor on the Main street under the name of "Old Guard House." The young people's forum met on Sunday evening at the home of Edward Rowe.

Mrs. Minard Myer is confined to her home with a sprained ankle. Judge and Mrs. Van Vechten Veder of New York city and Miss Cornelia DeWitt of Brooklyn have been spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew T. DeWitt.

Miss Ruth Oliver has returned to her home after being absent for some time.

The old bridge over the Esopus creek is now closed and anyone crossing is compelled to use the new bridge.

Bears' Playtime

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

The Bear Cubs, Jupiter and Blacky, had a grand many lessons about the woods and what they should eat, and that they must stay close to Honey Bear, their mother.

"You may wander all around Puddle Middle," she told them, "but the big world outside is not for you until you're much older. When you want to see other woods—that's on."

While Honey Bear was a true bear mother in making the cubs obey because she knew that all kinds of harm might come to them if they didn't, she was immensely proud of them.

She liked to play with them, too, and even if they, by accident, hurt her when they were tumbling and playing all over her, she did not object.

"Let's play now," Jupiter Bear suggested. He had been so named because he was the smaller of the two cubs, and Honey Bear had thought it would be nice to give him a bigger sounding name.

"Yes, growl, growl," said Blacky Bear, "let's play that Mother Honey Bear is a hill and we'll roll down her."

So Honey Bear sat just outside the cave and Jupiter and Blacky rolled down her back. Then they chased each other all around her as they played tag, and then they tried to see if they could jump over her. They never succeeded in this game. They always landed on her. She thought how well and safe they were in Puddle Middle. Little did she know of the danger ahead for Jupiter.

Goulash is a kind of meat stew which originated in Hungary and is popular here, both as a restaurant dish and in canned form for home use. It consists of beef or veal, potatoes, onions, paprika sauce, etc.

PLANTS FOR SHADY PLACES.

Shady places, whether under the old apple tree or by the side of the house, are often problem places. Not all woody plants, for instance, grow well in the shade. Some thrive, some grow scraggly and unattractive, and others are able to tolerate the shade.

A Cornell bulletin lists woody plants that grow and tolerate shade under varied conditions of dry soil, wet soil, acid soil, and normal soil, and it tells how the plants will look when in bloom. In addition, grasses that grow in shady places are recommended.

New Paltz Normal School Activities

New Paltz, May 21.—Tonight at sunset the sorority serenading will take place. Each of the Normal's six sororities will march in procession and sing its songs. The song leaders are: Madeline Zimlok, Agnes, Ruth Hatch, Clonian; Marion Raynor, Arethusa; Lucille Smith, Theta Psi; Diane Eastlich, Pi Sigma Lambda; Rita Spoor, Artemis.

The Normal varsity baseball team defeated N. Y. M. A. Saturday, 22-3. The independent picnic was held Thursday afternoon at the Glen. The affair was given by the Kappa Sigma. Miss Maude Richards' group was in charge of the activities.

There were games and community singing and a fine time enjoyed by all.

School superintendents will make their annual visit at the school, on Thursday, May 24. There will be a program in honor of the guests.

There was a picnic supper ride by the Riding Club on Thursday afternoon, May 17.

The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Junior High: President, Mary Darbee; vice president, Frank Uccia; secretary, Celia Warner; treasurer, Isaac Bell. Miss Darbee is working on a social program for next year.

The Delphi fraternity, initiated nine men in chapter last week. They were Ois Valentina, Vincent Vernon, Albert Dodd, Harold Follette, Albert Kingsley, Warren Terwilliger, John Glancy, Andrew Thompson and Arthur Chipp.

Proceeds reported from the play, "Three Corners Moon," given last Wednesday by the Dramatic Club, are $55.

The Agonian sorority has received nine new members into its ranks. Mrs. Ellice Schoonmaker of Ossining, Mrs. Ann Harris of Plattkill and Mrs. Alpha Craft of Kingston, all of the class of 1917, visited their sorority house, the Arethusa, last week-end.

KINGSTON SAVINGS BANK

A Washington Daybook

By HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON — Although still opposition still exists, those on the left believe the way has been cleared for passage of the Wagner labor bill this session.

Denounced by its enemies as the most "unfair and un-American bill ever submitted to congress" and praised by its advocates as a more giving labor protection to which it is entitled by law, both sides are marshaling their forces for a fight to the finish in the closing days of the present session.

Events of the past few days have strengthened greatly the hopes of Senator Wagner of New York, author of the bill, and his associates.

Principal among these events is the recent conference Wagner and Secretary Perkins of the labor department had with Mr. Roosevelt at the White House in which the bill was gone over in detail and revised.

Wagner Beams

CONGRESSIONAL leaders of both houses have been frank in their predictions that without the President's approval there would be little hope of passage.

As a result, it is believed the measure in its present form has the presidential blessing. No one has said so definitely, but Wagner's beaming countenance upon emerging from the conference and his declaration that he would re-introduce his bill immediately in a form slightly different from the original caused observers to think so.

The controversy over the bill has centered principally around the provision which would outlaw permanently "company dominated" labor unions.

Critics of the bill have referred constantly to the President's statement announcing settlement of the recent automobile controversy in which he said:

"The government makes it clear that it favors no particular union or particular form of employee organization or representation."

Limiting Influence

WAGNER has countered with the argument that the purpose of his measure is to see that labor shall join whatever union it chooses, that a particular union shall not be imposed upon the worker by the employer.

However, he heretofore has expressed his willingness to change his measure to enable companies to "initiate" company unions, but he is not willing that the company's influence shall extend any further.

Wagner's statement after the conference with Mr. Roosevelt that this provision would remain in the bill would seem to indicate that he and the President have come to see the proposition in like manner.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)
A Riddle—And The Answer
Saint John, N. B.—When is a fire not a fire?

An elderly resident of Saint John knows the answer to that one: When it's a nightmare. Dreaming that his house was afire, the man broke through a window and turned in an alarm. He was awakened by firemen who found him near the call box.

New Nudist Nook

Winfield, Kas.—Nudists have solved the problem of how to practice their cult in Kansas, where sections offer few trees for protection from the public eye.

They are taking sun baths on platforms at the top of idle oil derricks.

Such spots, they say, are even more secluded than Sylvan glades.

Big Hearted

Menominee, Mich.—Russell Nelson is so big-hearted that it gets him into trouble. He was released from jail a few days ago after serving a short term for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

But then he turned, the state charges, to visit his pals—and to treat them to some whisky he smuggled into the jail.

So now he awaits disposition of his smuggling case.

Caterpillar Campaign

White Plains, N. Y.—Boy Scouts of northern Westchester have answered a new call to arms—against caterpillars.

Bearing wire brushes, poles and fire brands, they have set out at the request of the county park commission to exterminate tent caterpillars that have been destroying trees and shrubbery.

Total Vote: 0

Burns, Ore.—The vote in Oregon's primary election was light throughout the state, and in Alvord precinct in the Southern Park—"It just wasn't."

Mrs. Walter Anderson, chairman of the election board, said that when no voters appeared, the four board members decided not to count even their own ballots.

The sealed ballot box was returned—empty.

Sharlite Should Be Derailed

New York.—The next time Jack Pearl asks "was you dere Sharlite?" about the state supreme court, his partner, Cliff Hall, should answer in the affirmative.

For trial of the separation action brought by Mrs. June Porges Hall is scheduled to start today.

Mrs. Hall charges that "Sharlite" beat her, called her names and abandoned her.

But "Sharlite" says he was locked out of his home.

His Ole Fishing Stream—Main Street, Shepherdstown, W. Va.—Bob Davis fishes for trout on the main street of Shepherdstown—and catches them.

Right in the center of town is a grating, beneath which flows a mountain stream. In the stream are rainbow trout—and Bob's hook.

The last one he caught measured 12 inches.

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, May 21.—The Firemen's Five, Drum and Bugle Corps will hold its weekly practice this evening.

Hope Temple, No. 80, Pythian Sisters, will hold a card party at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in Pythian Hall. The public is invited. There will be refreshments.

Mrs. Merritt F. McKean of Hensonville is convalescing from her recent illness at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jump.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Short and children visited their parents in this place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Trowbridge and son of Highland have moved into Mrs. John Lynn's house on Hamilton street.

HERE, John Biggs, IS WHAT TO DO FOR YOUR Headaches!

Dr. B.—* tells Mr. Biggs, traffic officer, of New York, N. Y.

"Dr. B.—is a well known New York physician whose signed statement is on record in New York. We omit his name out of courtesy to the accepted profession."

If you are made miserable by those "sick" headaches ... follow the advice of Dr. B.—. Get positive relief more quickly by removing the real cause!

Those nagging "sick" headaches of yours—nine times out of ten, doctors have learned, are due to just one cause: . . . Your intestines are clogged with poisonous wastes!

These accumulated wastes, according to Dr. B.—, exert pressure on the intestinal nerves, thus causing your headaches. Also they generate poisons that the blood stream picks up and carries to all parts of your body—making you feel "half sick," listless, out-of-sorts.

You must rid the system of these poisonous wastes! And for nearly forty years, doctors have prescribed Sal Hepatica as the safe, sure way to do this. For Sal Hepatica is utterly different from other types of laxatives in four vital respects:—

Why Sal Hepatica is Different—More Efficient

1. It is a Mineral Salt Laxative that not only flushes the system clear of poisonous wastes, but tends to aid Nature in restoring the natural balance of body fluids.
 2. Its action results from osmosis (a gentle, thorough flushing) and not from irritation.
 3. It acts promptly. No hours of waiting.
 4. No "dragged-out" feeling afterwards—because Sal Hepatica does not deplete the body tissues of fluid.
- So take Sal Hepatica at the first sign of clogged intestines. And thus aid Nature to keep you free from colds, grippe, rheumatic pains, upset stomach and other common troubles.

At The Theatres

Today

Kingston: "Sadie McKee." Vina Delmar, the young lady who knows how to create best selling novels, is responsible for this talking picture that finds Joan Crawford in the starring role. Miss Delmar's heroines are almost always of the underdog variety and Sadie McKee follows in the best tradition. Poor, trampled upon, preyed upon by men, Sadie McKee is just one of thousands of girls and she climbs the ladder to ermine and orchids. She does this, as you may suspect, through the aid, generosity and adoration of men. Three men enter her life and each leaves their mark. In the end she discovers that the one she hated at first is really the big moment in her life. Miss Crawford makes a fine Sadie McKee and seems to enjoy her part. Gene Raymond, Edward Arnold and Franchot Tone are also in the cast.

Orpheum: "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi." The motion picture industry's idea of college life is here disclosed in this drama of college love and hilarity. Music, romance, fun, everything but study, is part of this youthful show. The cast includes Ted Florigo and his band, Mary Carlisle, Charles Starrett, Buster Crabbe and Florence Lake.

Broadway: "The Trumpet Blows." George Raft rose to stardom through his ability in playing suave gangster roles. He was the ideal mobster, and his characters were sure fire. Late in his career, Mr. Raft has been given parts less kind to his makeup. And in this one we find him dressed up in the memory of Rudolph Valentino, a bullfighter who plays with death by day. It is well directed and acted drama, but the impression lingers that the sleek Mr. Raft should pull out a gun and finish off the bull with it in place of his matador's steel. Yet the scenes in the bull ring are unusually exciting and Adolphe Menjou, Raft's bandit brother, adds mystery and more excitement to a fast moving story. The romance centers around the unhappy fact that both brothers are in love with the same girl. What with excellent photography and settings, this show has the necessary elements for a successful picture. But the impression sticks that Mr. Raft is more comfortable in a role that gives him a sub-machine gun as a companion rather than a bull. Frances Drake, Katherine DeMille and Sidney Toler are members of the cast.

Tomorrow

Kingston: Same.

Orpheum: "The Face in the Sky" and "Ridin' Thru." The first double feature concerns a sign painter who falls in love with a model whose face appears on numerous billboards. Spencer Tracy and Marion Nixon head the cast. "Ridin' Thru" gives Tom Tyler another chance to gallop through a maze of action in a western drama of excitement and make believe.

Broadway: Same.

With all these "book a month" clubs spreading abroad, many a family eventually will have as many as a hundred books in the house.

Look and Feel

Clean, Sweet and

Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water

before breakfast to wash

out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sinuses of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the toxic fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, biliousness, stomach trouble, rheumatism, dizziness, headache, neuralgia, blood disorders and sickly complexion are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation. —Adv.

The "Empire" State

A New York State Glove Factory.

Prepared by National Geographic Society, Washington, D. C., 1933 Series.

Recent statistics report that New York state has 49 cities with a normal population of more than 10,000 each, of which seven stand in the 100,000 class and six in the 200,000 class. New York city has more than half the population of the whole state.

Buffalo, the metropolis of the country, with its splendid system of parks connected by drives, boulevards and parkways, ranks fifth among the industrial centers of the United States and is one of the ten leading ports of the world, although it lies at the foot of an inland lake.

No one could visit Rochester, with its falls, its beautiful parks, and its busy industries, without agreeing that here is one of America's most livable cities. Rochester makes enough "movie" film every year to bolt the earth eight times. Kodak park has to "cook" four tons of silver every week, transforming it into nitrate of silver to make the emulsion for the films and photographic paper Eastman produces. Nearly 7,000,000 pounds of cotton lint are used in the making of film, and there is a saying that on the smooth side film is first cousin to cotton and on the emulsion side cousin-german to sterling silverware.

Cleanliness must be next to godliness when motion-picture film is made. A speck on Greta Garbo's nose or a smudge on Mary Pickford's cheek would ruin a picture. So the smokestacks of Kodak Park are among the highest in America, and 20,000,000 gallons of water a day are pumped out of Lake Ontario. The gelatine on your film is as chemically pure as that in the desert on your dinner table.

It is an impressive sight to see Bausch and Lomb melting tons of sand, mixed with chemicals according to the most accurate of formulas, and then pouring the great pots of white-hot liquid upon a table and rolling it into the giant pancakes from which come most of the spectacles of America. For forty years the two founders of this concern toiled away before their business began to grow. But now Bausch and Lomb are known the world around and have one of the largest optical works on earth.

Syracuse is a radiant city in a beautiful land. Salt gave Syracuse its start, but today the community takes rank as one of the most versatile in America. Famed for its typewriters, air-cooled automobiles, office furniture, and other nationally used products, Syracuse is also distinctive as the capital of the Six Nations. Here the sachems of the several tribes meet in "The Long House," as they met centuries ago, to consider the problems that have changed so vastly since those powwows began.

A pitiful remnant of a once mighty nation they constitute. Their reservations are islands in the jurisdiction of the State of New York.

Yonkers Comes Fifth.

It is doubtful whether one person in ten would guess the fifth city of New York. It is Yonkers. Adrian van Donck, who once owned its site, was a young Dutch nobleman, or Jonkheer, and it was an easy transition to Yonkers from Jonkheer's land.

The city has some of the largest carpet factories, sugar refineries, and elevator plants in America.

Few states have capitals so fortunately located or capitals with as rich a history. Four of New York's six Presidents have been governors of the state—Van Buren, Cleveland and the two Roosevelts—and have lived in Albany. Another son of New York who won the presidency by vote of the people, but lost it at the hands of the electoral commission, was Governor Samuel J. Tilden.

Utica, a fair city of the Mohawk valley, is a center of the knitgoods industry in America.

Schenectady made a bold bid for position among the cities of the state in the 100,000 or more population class, under the 1920 census, and came only a few thousand short. As the home of the General Electric company, where Steinmetz, Coolidge, and Langmuir have delved so deeply into the mysteries of matter and have made many an apparently unfathomable secret arise to serve the needs of everyday life, Schenectady has become a household word in America.

Enochston, which is strikingly located astride east branch of the Susquehanna, is making a bid for a place beside Rochester in the manufacture of photographic supplies. The shoe factories of the neighboring town of Endicott, with its footwear known far and wide.

Troy is a mild-mannered city; but for all that, it makes America and much of the world wear its collars. In one factory there one finds a museum

My Best SHOT

Armour Confesses Affection For 'Old No. 3'

By TOMMY ARMOUR

(Written for The Associated Press.)

Chicago, AP.—There is a little sport in my golf shop at Medinah Country club that I always pass with my head down. I do not know whether it is through cowardice or sentiment.

In that cubby-hole stand my war clubs of other days, and as I pass them they seem to call me in a pleading voice, asking me the reason for my neglect. I sometimes stop and feel them, but I am always forced to put them back beside their brothers.

Undoubtedly, in the days of hickory shafts, the love and affection held for our heterogeneous collections of implements was many times greater than that we feel for our present-day highly manicured pieces of golf merchandise.

It is that cubby-hole strikes me. In the old days they were golf clubs—now they are golf merchandise.

How Clubs "Accumulated."

In the hickory club days, clubs were collected at random. A beautiful club might repose in the bag of some hundred-shooter and we would, with subtle salesmanship or by making derogatory remarks about the club, ultimately receive it as a gift, buy it or steal it.

By these methods it was nothing for a leading player to amass a collection of 100 or more golf clubs. The heads would be twisted in the vise and the shafts replaced a dozen times, and then we might ultimately find one good club out of 20. There was one fine club in every player's bag, a club that was the player's breadwinner and pet.

Alas, those days are gone. Now we have 20 or more beautifully-balanced clubs. Golf club sentiment has gone. The mechanical age is here.

It was an old, rusty battered relic of by-gone days that did more for me than any other one inanimate thing in my life. It won the American open for me, changed my whole life and made it possible for me to become financially independent.

Memories Of Oakmont In '27.

I pulled it out of the cubby hole the other day and was reminded of the day it came through for me when "we" played the iron shot to the 18th green at Oakmont in 1927.

I was a distance from the hole at which I could have used any one of four clubs, but this number three iron club got the call. If I missed that shot I was just another bum, but it didn't fail me. I became a champion.

That old friend knew the methods of playing an iron shot and I felt it needed no training. I automatically gripped it firmly in the roots of my fingers of my left hand. Just as automatically, I was slow at the top of my back swing. That iron knew the path from the inside and it prayed for me to let it, together with my hands, do the work, and not my body.

I am afraid my generally unemotional soul felt a great pang of remorse as I replaced it in the cubby hole with its brothers.

SPORT SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

(Associated Press Sports Editor.)

Between train rides recently I encountered the slim, quizzical young man who has taken charge of athletics at Notre Dame—Elmer Layden.

Anybody who thinks Elmer went back to South Bend simply to rally the gridiron forces has the wrong idea. Layden is handling the whole show and covering a lot of territory in the process. He led the track squad to Philadelphia for the Penn relays, then went off to look after the baseball team. But he was willing to talk a bit about football, since I insisted upon it.

"Spring practice went off with a lot of enthusiasm and we still are uncertain in the backfield and we miss those tackles, especially Ed Krause," said Layden. "Follow-up that cannot be replaced on short notice. Krause could be off form and still play the best tackle in the country. I don't mind telling you I like to have a quarterback of Carideo's type in there. But who would it be?"

Tough For Old Mizou

Speaking of Carideo reminds us that Confidential Agent No. 7 reports the ex-Notre Dame all-American quarterback and his ex-Purdue co-worker, Elmer (Red) Slight, are decidedly "on the spot" as coaches of football at the University of Missouri.

Carideo, as head coach and Slight, as line coach, were suspended two years ago when Missouri football was at low ebb. The administration put up a fine field house, named after its athletic director, C. L. Brewer, an old-time Wisconsin star, and arranged a winter program to bring schoolboy athletes to Columbia for visits calculated to fire enthusiasm to become Tiger fledglings.

The boys came, all right, but after looking over the excellent plant and fine educational inducements, they went elsewhere to pursue their athletic specialties. In short, the institutions which were doing the more practical missionary work of putting boys "on the line."

The consequence of a dearth of talent was that Carideo's teams in two seasons won only two games. They defeated Oklahoma in 1932, much to everybody's surprise, and beat Central college at Fayette, Mo., last fall. Among the teams which beat Missouri in 1933 was the Northeast Missouri Teachers of Kirksville.

One More Chance

Alumni outcries for Carideo's scalp and a "new deal" were loudly insisted. The editor of the campus weekly, in typical campus weekly fashion, espoused the anti-Carideo cause, the effect of which was to rally support for Carideo and cause university authorities to decide he deserved another chance.

The feeling is there will be a shake-up if Carideo does not produce better results this fall, even though his material admittedly is none too promising.

Probably closer to the fact is the likelihood that the former Notre Dame star will quit on his own volition if he doesn't make progress this year. Nobody expects or demands that Missouri win the Big Six championship but the season will be regarded as success of some outstanding rival, such as Kansas, can be bowled over.

Clair's Mayflowers Win in a Walk, 26-4

Connecting with the slants of three pitchers for 26 hits, Jack Clair's Mayflowers scored that many runs against the Tivoli A. C., which made four, at Hasbrouck Park, Sunday afternoon.

Denegar, Bolinda and Moore all took a turn at flinging the horseshoe across the plate for the visitors but none was able to stop the power in the Mayflower's bats. Roy Van Buren and Ad Stumpf hit homers. Stumpf also banged out a triple and J. Tomaszewski a double.

Ralph Williams was on the mound for the Clairs. He allowed 14 hits and struck out three batsmen. Score by innings:

Tivoli..... 210 000 100—4
Mayflowers..... 211 722 75x—26

Next Sunday the Mayflowers will play the St. Remy A. C. at St. Remy.

NORTH RONDOUTERS LOSE TO THE HERCULES, 4-5

The Hercules edged out the North Rondout Social Club nine at Port Jervis Sunday, 5-4, as Ken Best tossed for the Powdermen and allowed only seven hits to the visitors.

Wiltwyck Golf Club Course In Good Shape

By Joe Kelly

New Five-gang Operated Lawn Mower Received—Exhibition Matches at Formal Opening Next Sunday.

A new five-gang tractor operated lawn mower has been received by the Wiltwyck Golf Club and the fairways have been mowed off and present a very attractive appearance.

The new mower cuts a 11-foot swath. T. C. Goodman is getting the course in excellent shape for the formal opening next Sunday when exhibition matches will be played at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The public is invited to witness these matches which will be between outstanding players. Tickets for the matches are being sold by members of the club. Not only will this be an excellent opportunity to see some good golf but it will also afford a chance to see the new course.

There will be two matches, one which should be of interest to the ladies will be played between Mrs. Clarence Voss of Placidia, runner-up for the Northeast New York Women's championship and Mrs. Morris, Albany County Club champion. The second exhibition match will be between Tom Creavt, Albany County Club professional and 1931 P. G. A. champion and Alex Tallman, the Wiltwyck Golf Club pro.

With nine holes completed and ready for play the Wiltwyck Golf Club stands in a fine financial position. All work thus far done has been paid for and all machinery for the care and maintenance of the course for the year is on hand. The sprinkler pipe has been laid and hose has been received for watering and care of the greens.

A parking grounds for 100 cars is now nearing completion on Hurley avenue adjacent to the club house and will be ready for use Sunday.

The Huron Indians Scalp Highland, 7-1

The Huron Indians of Stone Ridge poked out a 7-1 victory over the Highland All Stars at Highland Sunday afternoon when B. Lieve struck out 15 batters and allowed only four hits and B. Wood starred with a home run.

Endeavoring to win, Highland imported several Newburgh stars, but even their help was unavailing. The Hurons were in swinging mood and connected for 10 hits off Foster, the Highland pitcher. Besides the homer by Wood, F. Neff hit two doubles and Snyder came through with one that was good for two bases.

Undefeated Kingston High Crushed By Po'keepsie, 14-4

Saturday afternoon at Memorial

Poughkeepsie, Kingston High. Poughkeepsie's previously undefeated home team suffered its first defeat of the season when Poughkeepsie High easily crushed the locals 14-4, during Captain Jim Martin out of the box in the end of the fifth inning after Poughkeepsie had collected 12 runs on 7 hits and as many errors.

Most of the team was decidedly nervous making eight errors. Captain Jim Martin of the locals suffered his first bad day this season and was replaced on the mound by Earl Bock in the sixth inning. Poughkeepsie collected 12 runs off of Martin and 2 off Bock.

In the five innings that Martin was on the mound, he fanned eight, walked three and allowed eight hits. Earl Bock in the three innings he pitched fanned none, walked two and allowed four hits. Kowalskie of Poughkeepsie took the pitching honors of the day, fanning 13, walking four and allowing nine hits.

Maroon Scores First. Kingston was the first to score, bringing home a run in the third inning. This 1-0 lead, however, was soon wiped out as Kingston was held scoreless in the two following innings while Poughkeepsie scored 12 runs in the third, three in the fourth and five in the fifth. Kingston collected one more run in the sixth and two more in the seventh while Poughkeepsie scored one more in the sixth and another in the seventh.

Play by Play. Following is the play by play account of the innings in which the runs were made:

Third inning. Kingston—Tiano singled, Zadyan fanned, Murphy fanned, Moore singled to center field, Tiano scoring. DeCicco fanned. One run, two hits, no errors.

Fourth inning. Poughkeepsie—Green fanned, Leonetti walked, Kowalskie singled past Murphy, Leonetti pulling up at third. Gunn walked. Reinaldi walked, forcing in Leonetti. Martino sacrificed, scoring Kowalskie and Gunn. Bias was hit by Martin and went to first. Marchesi singled to left, Reinaldi scoring. Joseph fanned. Four runs, two hits, no errors.

Fifth inning. Poughkeepsie—Bass out, Murphy to Linden. Marchesi singled. Liquori reached first on Moore's fumble. Taffe fanned. Leonetti singled. Marchesi scoring. Kowalskie reached first on an error by Linden. Liquori and Leonetti scoring. Gunn doubled to center field and went the circuit on an error by Maines, scoring Kowalskie. Reinaldi popped to Martin. Five runs, three hits, three errors.

Sixth inning. Kingston—DeCicco walked. Linden singled. Martin fanned. Hopper singled. Linden out at second. Gunn to Leonetti. Maines singled. DeCicco scoring. Hopper was put out at second by Gunn for his failure to touch the bag. One run, three hits, no errors.

Seventh inning. Kingston—Tiano singled. Zadyan walked and reached on Marchesi's error. Tiano pulling up at third. With Murphy at bat, Tiano and Zadyan scored on a passed ball. Murphy out. Baling to Arno. C. Bock doubled. DeCicco walked. Linden grounded to Baling who put Bock out at third. Martin fanned. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

Eighth inning. Poughkeepsie—Leonetti singled. Kowalskie walked. Gunn flied to Linden. Arno out. DeCicco to Linden. Leonetti scoring. Martino singled. Bias walked. Marchesi flied to Maines. One run, two hits, no errors.

Sideline. Two weeks ago, Kingston defeated Poughkeepsie at the Fair Grounds, 11-5. Saturday the tables were completely reversed with Poughkeepsie on the long end of the scoring, collecting more runs than hits, and Kingston making the errors instead of Poughkeepsie.

Tom Maines' double was the longest hit of the day.

Thursday the team plays at Newburgh with Newburgh Free Academy in the game that may decide the DUSO champions. Kingston and Newburgh have not been defeated in their DUSO games to date.

The students at the high school are showing much enthusiasm over the coming Newburgh fray and are planning to hold a pep meeting Wednesday in the auditorium of the high school. They also have had "Beat Newburgh" signs printed and are planning to run a busload of rooters to the game.

K. H. S. Jayvers Trip The Spencers, 8-6

Friday afternoon at the Athletic Field, the Kingston High Junior Varsity defeated the Spencer Varsity School nine, 8-6, overcoming a 2 run lead to win.

Tom Maines was a big factor in the Jayvers' success, belting out 2 doubles. Toff and Wood did the twirling for the winners and Bordenstein for the losers.

The Jayvers collected 2 runs in the first, one in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth and two in the seventh. Spencers collected 1 run in the second and five in the third.

Dean Boys Figure Prominently in Win of Cards to Second Place. Reds Yield to Boston in 10-7. Posing Fight, 1-0.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer. The St. Louis Cardinals, perched proudly in second place in the National League standings, can look back on a fine stroke of business—signing of the Dean boys from Bradenton, Fla., for pitching duty.

In the course of the Card's winning streak which has brought 15 victories out of 29 games and carried them from a seventh-place tie to a spot only a single game behind the pace-setting Chicago Cubs, Dzy and Paul Dean have figured prominently.

The Pirates took the worst kind of punishment as they dropped to third place under the Phillies' 23 hit assault that piled up a 16 to 4 score. Chicago's Cubs saw their lead dwindle when Van Lingle Mungo of Brooklyn dithered the mto six hits while his battery-mate, Al Lopez, led the Dodgers to a 5 to 1 triumph.

The cellar dwelling Cincinnati Reds put up a great scrap to escape their first defeat of the season, but finally yielded to Boston, 1 to 0 in the ninth inning.

Only the first, fourth and last places in the American League standing remained in the same hands after a day of keen battling among the closely bunched teams. The Cleveland Indians moved into second place by blunting an 8 to 5 victory over the league leading Yankees.

Detroit took the corresponding drop when Washington used five doubles on: Schoenboy Rows to gain a 4-1 triumph.

St. Louis and Boston moved up a notch apiece by trimming Philadelphia and Chicago respectively and the defeated A's went down two places to seventh.

The Kingston High track team journeyed to Newburgh Saturday to compete in the annual Newburgh Relays with 25 other high schools. The locals collected only 4 1/2 points, placing in the field events only.

Newburgh easily won the meet, taking practically all of the running events. The locals collected their only points by placing in four field events. Don Clark tied for third place in the high jump, jumping 5 feet 4 inches. Davis tied for second in the pole vault at 10 feet 5 inches. Jake Marcus tied for third place in the shotput. Allan Styles took third place in the broad jump.

One good thing about this depression period, anyway—we haven't heard of so many men being married to several wives at the same time.

A BLOW-OUT! WILL IT BE YOUR TURN NEXT?

Copyright 1934, The F. B. Goodrich Rubber Co.

Play safe with Goodrich Silvertowns, the only tires with the Golden Ply. Get months of extra mileage, too!

The only warning a blow-out gives is BANG! Then it's much too late. Neither your steering wheel nor your emergency brake can save you. All you can do is hope for the best. For a nice soft spot to land.

Due to powerful motors and whirlwind revolutions of smaller modern wheels, the heat generated inside the tire is terrific. Rubber and fabric begin to separate. A tiny blister forms inside the tire where you can't see it. As the friction increases the blister grows—bigger—BIGGER—until BANG! A blow-out! The rim hits the road. And a terrible drag sets in like some unseen monster pulling your car off the highway.

An amazing invention!

But now, internal heat, the enemy of the safety and mileage, has been checked. By an amazing Goodrich invention—the Life-Saver Golden Ply. This remarkable engineering development, found only in the new Silvertown, resists intense heat. Binds the tire carcass and tread virtually into a single unit, inseparable even under grueling driving conditions.

Thus, blisters don't form. The great, unseen cause of blow-outs is prevented before it begins. The Golden Ply thus made the "safest tire ever built" 3 times safer from blow-outs at

High Spots In Darrow Report and NRA Reply

Washington, May 21 (AP).—High spots in the Darrow report and the NRA reply.

The board—The board of the anti-trust laws for the purpose of restoring competition in the steel industry is the greatest of the times.

"What is called a 'revelation' may not always be the public enemy," he has been represented. Instances arise where he is seen to be struggling to prevent the total absorption of an industry or interest into a monopolistic organization of chains against which the public has no other protection.

Hugh S. Johnson—"A more superficial, intemperate and inaccurate document than the report I have never seen."

Donald R. Richberg, NRA general counsel—"The board has made itself an agency for the mean attack of chiselers who seek private profit out of continuing that 'savagery' competition which the steel board would perpetuate in the contempt or pessimistic despair of the processes of civilization."

The board—"The steel code authority is 'perfectly equipped to exercise monopolistic control,' the motion picture industry, the existence of the independent, the Rosenblat, movie code administrator, should be removed for favoring the large companies; the bituminous coal code authorities of northern West Virginia and western Pennsylvania should be removed for 'inefficiency in office.'"

The NRA—"The Darrow board took testimony that would 'serve its prejudice' and its conclusions are 'unsupported and unsupportable.'"

Financial and Commercial

New York, May 21 (AP).—Financial markets plodded along steadily today with most traders and investors apparently lacking energy to make any decisive gesture toward either buying or selling.

Stocks were particularly inert during the greater part of the session. The volume of transactions was the smallest in several years. The ticker tape was silent for minutes at a time. Many of the board rooms were virtually deserted by customers.

Commodities were reasonably steady, although they were not sufficiently active to provide any stimulus for speculators. Oats and corn improved after early hesitancy. Silver and rubber did better, but cotton lagged. Bonds showed no more enthusiasm than stocks. Foreign exchanges were narrow.

The mining shares were about the only ones that showed any life. Homestake got up around 10 points. U. S. Smelting gained nearly 3, and American Smelting, Howa Sound, and others were up.

Victory Dinner For Vet's Commander

Colonel R. W. Kearney, Commander of New York State Department, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Tendered Banquet Here.

Colonel R. W. Kearney, commander of the New York State Department of Veterans of Foreign Wars, was a guest of honor at a banquet tendered to him at the Governor Clinton Hotel Saturday night by Joyce-Sentrick Post, V. F. W. It was the first of a series of dinners to be given to the veterans of the war.

Commander Kearney's election, so that it was particularly appropriate that this victory dinner should be held here.

Commander Kearney pleaded for closer cooperation between the various patriotic organizations—the American Legion, the V. F. W., and others—and told of his efforts during the last legislative session to unify the work that was being done by representatives of these organizations in their endeavors to secure legislation for the welfare of the veterans. The speaker held that it made no difference where a man served, or in what unit he served, so long as he was in the service of his country.

Edward J. Wortman was chairman of the reception committee and welcomed the guests of the evening. He then turned the further ceremonies of the evening over to Senior Vice-Commander B. J. Kaplan, who acted as toastmaster. Dr. Kaplan gave a brief but pleasing address, telling of the pleasures he took in being a member of the V. F. W. and seconding the remarks of Commander Kearney regarding the desirability of closer cooperation among the organizations.

Stephen J. Parker, state department quartermaster of V. F. W., who has charge of the poppy drive, told of the good work being done at the National Home for widows and orphans in Michigan. He urged all to work hard to make the drive a success this year.

Mrs. Ida Ann Ashby, secretary-treasurer of the New York State Auxiliary, American Legion, made a very pleasing address. Other speakers who were heard with pleasure were James Doran, county commander of the V. F. W., Edna O'Brien, president of the Hudson Valley Ladies' Auxiliary, Robert Browning, Louis Hoffman, junior vice-commander of the New York State Department, William McCann, department councilman from New York city, William Garvey, past commander of Bronx county council and James Francis of Windham, senior vice-commander.

At the reception which followed the banquet there was an unexpected pleasure in a visit by a delegation from the V. F. W. Auxiliary, led by Mrs. Ida Harrison, past national commander of the Ladies' Auxiliary, and a delegation from the newly organized Nyack Post, headed by Mayor Taylor of Nyack.

The veterans were greatly pleased at the announcement by Commander Kearney that the organization's deficit of $7,260 had been wiped out, funds being on hand to pay it in full at the next convention of the V. F. W., to be held in Syracuse.

Bar-Fly Rests Foot On Brass Rail Again

Perpendicular Drinking Gives Long-suffering Fellow a Chance to Make Little Bit of a Long Way, as ABC Hears the Change.

New York, May 21 (AP)—The bar-fly—long-suppressed fellow—put his foot down in New York today.

He put it down on a brass rail. This was done with the approval of the State Alcoholic Beverage Control Board which decided that, after all, there is nothing wrong about perpendicular drinking.

Since the repeal of prohibition, the feet of Gotham's drinkers have been carefully groping for rails that weren't there.

In restaurants and bars, this little drama was enacted today, over and over.

"Get up, Eddie!" That, the setting of the elbows on the counter, the planting of the foot on the rail.

The town's professional boys were ready for the comeback, but the novel managers are worrying a little about the stipulation that the bar must not be the prominent feature of the room, that it "must be incidental."

Officials have not yet stated just how they will decide whether a bar is too prominent.

"Building a Canal or Buying a Car... —good Engineering Counts"

A CERTIFIED INTERVIEW WITH CONSTRUCTION ENGINEER FRANK VIOLETTE, PANAMA CANAL ZONE

"We punish cars down here...but let me tell you how my Plymouth takes it."

FRANK VIOLETTE is a modest man. He talks very little about his supervising millions of dollars' worth of Panama's construction. But ask him about cars...

"In the Canal Zone, our everyday driving soon proves to us how a car takes punishment. I've found that of all the low-priced cars, Plymouth stands up the best."

And Mr. Violette isn't surprised that Plymouth proved to be the strongest. As an engineer, he knows from long experience that steel reinforced with steel is the safest form of construction you can have.

But Plymouth engineers didn't stop with this one safety feature. They added Hydraulic Brakes—the safest brakes made.

Then, they built in extra comfort, too...with patented Floating Power engine mountings and Individual Wheel Springing.

Any Dodge, De Soto or Chrysler dealer will demonstrate Plymouth.

"We depend on steel for safety in the Canal and in our buildings. We've found it's positive proof against everything from bullets to earthquakes. So I know a Safety-Steel Body would be strongest."

"Some of our roads weren't built for comfort. But my Plymouth was. Its Independent Wheel Springing keeps off the bumps. And Hydraulic Brakes keep me out of many congested and busy."

"Mr. Violette and Mr. Shuman, President of the Canal Zone, with Mr. De Leeuw, Plymouth sales agent at 1000 on the River. These gentlemen arranged to let your budget. Ask for the Official Chrysler Motor-Credit Plan."
